

RUBBER MASKING COMPOUND AND METHODS OF USE

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Masking compounds are comprised of a vulcanized rubber latex, at least one filler and aqueous ammonia. The masking compounds dry to a removable elastic membrane. The masking compounds are usable for masking a variety of materials, for cleaning surfaces, and, in combination with a sheet, for isolating or dividing spaces.